

Southwestern Union Educational Endowment Scholarship

The Southwestern Union Educational Endowment Scholarship is given only to Seventh-day Adventist students from the Southwestern Union Conference territory who:

1. are enrolled full time at Southwestern Adventist University
2. give evidence of commitment to their local church program and willingness to participate in God's work
3. have an established financial need
4. maintain an acceptable scholarship and citizenship record

Applications may be obtained through Student Financial Services. Yearly awards range from $300 - $1000. A thank-you note is required.