

BUAD 270: Management Information Systems

The fundamentals of information systems: hardware and software, extensive information on database systems, telecommunications, electronic commerce, and knowledge management. Spreadsheet applications will also be covered in depth.

Credits: 3

Prerequisites:

Grade of at least 70 on the computer entrance test, or CSIS 110 or permission of the department.

Program: Business Administration

Semester Offered: Fall