

BUAD 317: Business Communication

This course is designed to survey the principles and forms of communication frequently found in domestic and international organizations. Emphasis on oral and written communication theory and practice. This covers materials tested on the CPA Exam.

Credits: 3

Program: Business Administration

Semester Offered: Spring