

EDUC 418: Legal Foundations of Education

A study of the legal aspects of education, with emphasis on the responsibilities, duties, and existing constitutional statutory rights of agencies and individuals. Topics related to students with special needs and those from diverse populations will be covered.

Credits: 3

Prerequisites:

Admission to education preparation program

Program: Education

Semester Offered: Fall