

EDUC 485: Directed Teaching in Secondary School

This course is a 14-week student teaching experience. Students are required to engage in full-day teaching in an approved classroom (grades 7-12). Student teachers work under the guidance of a mentor teacher and a university supervisor. Available to seniors only in their final semester. Placement requires approval of education faculty. Pass/no pass course.

Credits: 6

Prerequisites:

Two-thirds of the professional education classes, academic specialization(s) and academic foundations, senior standing, and admission to student teaching.

Program: Education

Semester Offered: Fall, Spring