

NURS 410: Disaster Readiness & Intervention

This course focuses on emergency preparedness and disaster management. Emphasis is on completing requirements to become a Disaster Health Services responder of the American Red Cross. Additional content includes first responder principles for administering aid for victims of disaster-related incidents, including civilian response to active threats. Experiential learning activities will be utilized to enhance the application of course content (Also taught as ALHE 410).

Credits: 1

Prerequisites:

All 200 and 300 level nursing courses, or permission of the instructor

Program: Nursing

Semester Offered: Fall

Spring