

The Write Spot

Support for writing and writers on campus is the focus of The Write Spot, Southwestern's writing center. This facility is located in the library, on the first floor, and offers assistance to students, faculty, and staff. Faculty and trained mentors are available for consultations 24 hours a week during the academic year.