

BIOL 180: Biology Research Seminar

A freshman level seminar course designed to initiate students early in their careers to the concepts, principles and conduct of biological research by exposing them to active researchers in various disciplines of biology. Class activities include attendance at research presentations by staff and outside researchers, participation with questions and preparation of two page summary of each presentation. Required for all freshmen. All other biology majors will be expected to attend. Presentations by special guests.

Credits: 1

Program: Biological Sciences

Semester Offered: Fall