

BIOL 498: Individual Study Topics

Special study may be pursued beyond completed course work under the direction of a staff member. This study may involve data collection or library work and will involve a written report. Content and method of study must be arranged prior to registration. May be repeated for a total of 3 credits. (Offered periodically)

Credits: 1-3

Prerequisites:

BIOL 111

BIOL 112

Two upper division courses; and permission of the instructor

Program: Biological Sciences