

COMM 475: Advertising Internship

These internship courses offer the advanced student university credit for on-the-job, off-campus work in film, radio, television, journalism, public relations or advertising under the joint direction of departmental staff and a supervisor at the organization or business selected. Ideally, the internship will occur the summer between the student's junior and senior years. Eligible for IP grading.

Credits:

1
-
3

Prerequisites:

Prerequisite: Permission of department chair and instructor

Program:

Communication