

EDUC 375: Children's Literature

A course designed to introduce the pre-service teacher to the many benefits of children's literature. A wide range of genres, authors, illustrators, and titles will be emphasized. Students will learn to identify quality literature, award categories, and make informed book selections for the classroom. The use of children's literature for study and recreation will be emphasized. Connections to authentic reading experiences will be provided throughout the semester.

Credits: 3

Prerequisites:

Admission to education preparation program

Program: Education

Semester Offered: Fall