

EDUC 386: Mathematics in the Elementary School

A course designed to acquaint the pre-service teacher with concepts, methods, and available materials for effective mathematics instruction in the elementary school. Creative development of materials and lesson plans are emphasized. (This course does not apply to mathematics requirements.) Includes field experience.

Credits:

3

Prerequisites:

Admission to education preparation program

Program:

Education

Semester Offered:

Fall