

EDUC 485: Directed Teaching in Secondary School

This course is open only to pre-service teachers seeking certification in Secondary Education. It requires full-day observations and student teaching in an approved secondary school for fourteen weeks under the direction of supervising teachers. Pass/no pass course.

Credits:

6

Prerequisites:

Two-thirds of the professional education classes, academic specialization(s) and academic foundations, senior standing, and admission to student teaching.

Program:

Education

Semester Offered:

Fall, Spring