

ENGL 321: Literary Theory

This course introduces students to literary theories and genres and their application to selected works of literature. Students will learn to analyze fiction, non-fiction, drama, and poetry using various theoretical lenses and critical approaches.

Credits: 3

Program: English

Semester Offered: Fall