

KINT 241: Care and Prevention of Athletic Injuries

An introduction to prevention and management of injuries resulting from athletic activities. Treatment options include: support methods, conditioning exercises, and therapeutic aids. Laboratory work includes bandaging and taping various athletic injuries. Course fee.

Credits:

3

Prerequisites:

BIOL 101

Program:

Kinesiology

Semester Offered:

Fall, even years