

KINT 420: Adapted Physical Education

A course designed to aid the educator in identifying physical, structural, functional or neurological impairments found in school-age children. Emphasis includes a survey of source material needed to plan and conduct individual, developmental and special courses in physical education. Lecture and lab.

Credits: 3

Program: Kinesiology

Semester Offered: Fall, even years