

MKTG 452: International Marketing

This course will provide students skills and knowledge of the strategies for entering the international marketplace. An emphasis is placed on the impact of sociocultural, economic, technological, governmental, and demographic factors on the international marketing mix.

Credits:

3

Prerequisites:

MKTG 343

Program:

Business Administration

Semester Offered:

Fall