

RELT 212: Introduction to Christian Ethics

An introduction to the theory and practice of Christian morality: its biblical origins, norms, and sources of authority, including Christian approaches to basic issues such as decision-making, church-world relations, abortion, reproduction technology, euthanasia, marriage and divorce, and methods of social change.

Credits: 3

Program: Religion

Semester Offered: Fall