The B.A. in Theology will give you a solid foundation in theology, practical ministry and biblical studies. You will understand the historical background, the exegetic process, and the message of the Bible more deeply and explore answers to significant theological, philosophical and spiritual questions of life and mission. You will be prepared to continue seminary studies or to serve others through different ministries in the Church. The Department of Religion provides a Christ-centered and Bible-based religious education that is in line with the global mission and message of the Seventh-day Adventist Church. The B.A. in Theology offers unique opportunities for practical ministry and evangelism through required church assignments and its Field School of Evangelism.

Job Market

Most of our graduates are hired as pastors in various Adventist Conferences. Other graduates attend the Seminary or enter other programs for chaplaincy, counseling, or teaching. They also become qualified to work as full time missionaries, Bible workers, or departmental directors and administrators at various levels of the Adventist Church.

Job Outlook

Our graduates are interviewed every year by Conference Presidents within the Southwestern Union as well as from outside of the Union. About 90% of our graduates are hired as pastors or as youth/associate pastors. Employment opportunities will increase in the next few years as a significant number of pastors in North America will retire from active ministry.

Earnings

Although earnings will vary widely by region and position an average salary for a pastor is about $55,000. The beginning salary for a new pastor just starting out may be somewhat less.

Educational Qualifications

Graduates are strongly encouraged to pursue graduate work in order to meet the demands of a highly educated society and the needs of local parishioners. A doctorate will be required for those who want to teach religion at an Adventist college or Seminary level.

Required Courses

The curriculum of the BA in Theology is devised to meet the prerequisites for admission to the M. Div. program at the SDA Theological Seminary at Andrews University. The B.A. in Theology requires a minor in Biblical Languages.
